Breakfast Club

Good News! With effect from Monday 16th January, we have decided that the Breakfast Club will provide breakfast to children without the need for a donation or payment. Due to the support of 'Greggs' we are able to offer this FREE service again to our children. At this time, however we are only providing a breakfast for children so until further notice we still have no provision to cater for parents.

We look forward to seeing you as usual on Monday.

My Christmas adventure – a true story

On the 3rd January I went on a walk with my Grandad and his dog Oscar in Warsash. Along the way we met an elderly man who was looking for his dog. We then carried on with our walk. We suddenly heard a shout, when we turned around we saw the man falling off the edge of the cliff.

My Grandad sent me to find somebody with a phone, soon luckily someone with a phone arrived. We called for the ambulance and I rushed back to my Grandad and the man. The person with the phone went to find the dog and soon the person returned with the man's dog. A bit later on, the ambulance arrived and took the man to hospital. The man is now really well.
